Four favorites won at Gloucester yesterday, and the takent at the South Jersey track were in high feather. Consistent running seems to be the rule at Gloucester just at present.

Jupiter was well played yesterday, but he falled to shine as brightly as his people expected he would.

Young Duke, who should have been named to Duke many years ago, died at Albany a FRENCH GOVERNMENT SUSTAINED few days ago. He was by Duke of Magenta, dam hortense, and in his early carrier was a sprinter of no mean order.

the best of the start. Starter Rowe arrived so scandal from that point will be stopped. No doubt many of the above reports are exaggerated. In and out running exasperates one, and unfounded charges are frequently

Had Gold Digger been saved for the four and a haif furlong dash to-day he would have had a better chance to who. Five turiongs is a tride too far for him, and Figurette is a hard nut to crack when good.

Judge Burke did not like Dodd's finish on Charley Wilson in the third race. Neither did the spectators, for they saw this same Dodd rine a very fair race on the same horse a lew days ago. The judge administered a reprimand, but next time Mr. Dodd will hardly get off as easily.

HAVE YOU BEEN ROBBED?

Numerous complaints of thefts by pick-pockets at that station have been received, and the prisoners will be held to see if any of the victims can identify them.
